Make-A-Wish Foundation® Elects New Members to Board of Trustees

Seattle-The Make-A-Wish Foundation® of Alaska, Montana, Northern Idaho and Washington, a nonprofit organization that grants wishes to children with life-threatening medical conditions, is pleased to announce the following additions to the board of trustees.

Holly Brown

Brown is the co-founder of Brown Real Estate Group, a foreclosure real estate company which she began with her husband in 2000. In 2009, their office received the most real estate sales in King County. Previous employers include, but aren't limited to, Harris Electric, where she served as an Electrical Estimator and Essex Credit Corporation where she was an office manager.

Brown is a graduate of the University of Washington with a Bachelor's degree in Communications and an emphasis on Advertising. She currently resides in Lake Forest Park with her husband and their daughter.

Catherine Captain

With fifteen years of experience in media and marketing, Captain is the General Manager of TODAYshow.com (2008-present) and the Vice President of Marketing for msnbc.com (2005-present). In these roles, Captain is responsible for product strategy, business development, brand marketing, media relations, graphic design, consumer research, partner programs, and event planning. Her prior experience includes eight years at USA Today, including her position as Director of Marketing Research and earlier as Strategic and Competitive Planning Manager.

Captain earned a Master of Science degree in Integrated Marketing Communications from Northwestern University and is also a graduate of University of Iowa where she earned a Bachelor of Arts in English and Journalism. She currently resides in Redmond with her husband and their two daughters.

Dr. Sangeeta R. Hingorani, M.D., M.P.H. is an Assistant Professor of Pediatrics at University of Washington School of Medicine and Seattle Children's Hospital. In addition to her teaching responsibilities, she is currently on the medical staff as a pediatric nephrologist at Seattle Cancer Care Alliance and Seattle Children's Hospital/University of Washington.

Hingorani is a member of the American Society of Pediatric Nephrology (ASPN) Career Development Committee as well as the ASPN Workforce Committee. In 2005, she received subspecialty board certification in Pediatric Nephrology by the American Board of Pediatrics.

Hingorani received her Bachelor's degree from Yale University, her M.D. from Albert Einstein College of Medicine in Bronx, New York and her M.P.H. from University of Washington School of Public Health. She resides in Lake Forest Park with her husband.

The Make-A-Wish Foundation of Alaska, Montana, Northern Idaho and Washington grants the wishes of children with life-threatening medical conditions to enrich the human experience with hope, strength and joy. Since its inception in 1986, the chapter has granted more than 4,250 wishes to children in the Northwest and will grant 340 wishes this year alone.
